Description

An exceptional antique Edwardian satinwood triple wardrobe dating from circa 1900, beautifully crafted from richly figured satinwood and decorated throughout with exquisite hand-painted and inlaid Neoclassical ornament of outstanding quality. Combining elegant proportions with remarkable practicality, this impressive wardrobe provides generous storage whilst serving as a magnificent statement piece for both period and contemporary interiors. The architectural breakfront design is crowned with a finely moulded cornice above beautifully detailed friezes, whilst each outer door is adorned with intricate marquetry and painted decoration featuring classical urns, floral swags, scrolling foliage and finely executed oval panels depicting cherubic figures. The warm golden satinwood displays exceptional natural figuring and a rich colour that has developed over more than a century of careful ageing. The central mirrored door is framed by elegant mouldings and opens to reveal a spacious interior, while the wardrobe offers outstanding storage throughout. One section provides full hanging space complete with brass hooks, whilst the opposite section incorporates fitted shelves above...
