Description

Antique 20th century Jacobean style corner cabinet in oak, a beautifully crafted piece designed to make excellent use of corner spaces while offering an abundance of storage and display. Very well made and of good quality, it combines traditional Jacobean styling with practical everyday functionality. The upper section features a glazed display cabinet enclosing three internal shelves, ideal for showcasing china, glassware or treasured collectables. Below is a blind-door cupboard fitted with a single shelf, providing useful concealed storage. Raised on a substantial plinth base, the cabinet has an impressive yet well-balanced appearance. The oak displays a rich, warm colour with attractive natural grain throughout, giving the cabinet plenty of character and charm. Its classic proportions, quality construction and handsome design make it a particularly desirable example that will complement both period and modern interiors alike. For added convenience, the cabinet separates into two sections, making transportation and installation much easier. Presented in good condition, this beautiful Jacobean style corner cabinet is both practical and decorative, making it a wonderfu...
