Description

This evocative cold-painted bronze lamp captures the romantic allure of the Orientalist tradition, modelled as a seated Arab figure resting upon a richly detailed rug. Draped in flowing garments of deep blue and warm ochre, the figure sits contemplatively beneath a tall, stylised standard supporting a hanging lantern. The lantern, with its pierced panels and coloured glass inserts, encloses an internal light fitting that casts a soft, atmospheric glow when illuminated. Finely cast details—from the delicate coffee vessel at his side to the textured folds of fabric—enhance the narrative intimacy of the scene. Both decorative and functional, the piece embodies exoticism, craftsmanship, and the charm of early 20th-century Viennese bronze artistry. Signed with the Bergman 'B' in an amphora vase and 'NamGreb'.
