Description

A characterful late 19th-century Staunton pattern chess set, comprising a complete complement of thirty-two turned boxwood and ebonised wooden pieces. The set features substantial kings and queens with carved coronets, mitred bishops, finely carved horse-head knights, castellated rooks and traditionally turned pawns. Each piece is finished with green baize to the underside. The set is accompanied by its original oak storage box with hinged lid and brass hook fastening. The pieces have developed an attractive mellow colour and surface patina, with expected signs of age and use. Dimensions Height: 3.5 inches – 9cm Width: 1.5 inches – 4cm Depth: 1.5 inches – 4cm
