Description

Still Life Oil Painting Pears and Apples 19th-Century Signed Original Brief Description: This is a very fine-quality original Oil on Canvas Still Life depicting a beautifully composed arrangement of a single pear, two apples, berries, and a small cluster of plums, resting naturally upon the woodland floor. Executed with remarkable precision, the painting displays an exceptional level of detail, from the rich textures of the fruit to the subtle interplay of light and shadow, creating a wonderfully lifelike composition. The work is signed and dated in the lower right corner, 'F. Rowe '94' (1894), confirming its late Victorian origin. It is presented within its original period gilt gadrooned moulded frame, which complements the painting beautifully and enhances its classic appeal. A highly decorative and finely executed late 19th-century still life, offering excellent colour, depth, and craftsmanship, making it an elegant addition to any traditional or contemporary interior. Attributes: Oil on Canvas Signed: 'F. Rowe' Circa/dated: 1894 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall exceptional original condition. There are some minor areas...
