Description

This is a good example of a Wellington chest dating from around 1850. The seven drawer chest is in rosewood and is in excellent condition throughout. It has carved corbels to the pillasters and a fully functional locking bar with key to the right hand side. This handsome chest has a really nice colour and patina and is a good size measuring 127 cms high 58 cms wide and 42 cms deep. UK delivery is £75 plus vat.
