Description

This is a fine late Regency period nest of tables in superb original condition with a delightful delicate design and a lovely antique colour and patina. The elegant set are attractively and finely inlaid with satinwood and ebony stringing and burr walnut crossbanded edges. These have very delicate turned legs in solid mahogany with bentwood mahogany stretchers to the rear. Despite the delicate design and their great age these have been cared for carefully and are in good sound condition overall, ready for many years more service. The largest table measures 70 cms in height 43 cms wide by 27 cms deep. UK delivery can be arranged with our careful furniture courier and costs £55 plus vat to most destinations.
