Description

Early 20th-century brass hall lantern ceiling light with a single curved glass cylinder. The lantern has three internal candle fittings supported by a central column and is suspended from a brass chain and ceiling rose. The brass frame is finished with ball finials and simple decorative supports. It has been sympathetically cleaned, retaining a nice aged bronze colour. Fitted with E14 (small screw) bulb holders. This piece comes with a rose and chain measuring 12 cm. - sku 3979
