Description

A fine and rare W() Porcelain pedestal Vase and cover, Mansfield decorated, c1799-1802. Very finely painted in the manner of William Billingsley with country houses, within gilt palm frond reserves, the white ground richly gilt in the Neoclassical taste, square base, Christie's and "Woodhall-Greene" Collection labels, the latter numbered 492. The piece bears the impressed mark of the enigmatic W() factory. It is thought (but not known for certain) that that factory was operated by the Whitehead family-Whitehead senior having three sons-hence the three stars. Condition: Cover with a small amount of crazing, the urn with small area of restoration to rim and to small chips where base and urn meet.
