Description

A handsome Victorian rosewood chaise longue, raised upon finely carved cabriole legs terminating in original brass casters. The shaped frame displays beautifully figured rosewood, with elegant carved wood surrounding the upholstered seat and accentuating the refined craftsmanship. The shaped back is upholstered in deep buttoned fabric and supported by finely carved rosewood uprights, creating an elegant and comfortable silhouette. Richly decorative yet practical, this chaise longue is an excellent example of Victorian furniture design. Presented in good condition, this attractive piece would make a wonderful addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors.
