Description

A superb mahogany oval coffee table by the renowned makers Arthur Brett & Co. of Norwich, celebrated for producing furniture of exceptional quality and craftsmanship throughout the 19th and 20th centuries. This elegant coffee table is raised upon a finely turned gun barrel column, terminating in graceful swept legs fitted with brass box casters, combining both stability and refined period styling. The beautifully figured oval top is decorated with an intricate triple crossbanded border of mahogany, rosewood, and satinwood, further enhanced by delicate ebony and boxwood line inlays, showcasing the outstanding attention to detail for which Arthur Brett & Co. are renowned. Presented in good condition, this finely crafted coffee table is an elegant and practical piece, making it an ideal addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. A wonderful example of British cabinet-making, offering timeless design, exceptional craftsmanship, and enduring quality. Size: Height 19" (48cm) Width 48" (122cm) Depth 28" (71cm)
