Description

A set of 4 good quality chapel chairs dating from the early 20th Century. They are a simple sturdy design with solid elm seats. They are in good condition for their age and they have developed a lovely aged patina. There are some signs of age and use and some small knocks and surface marks but nothing detrimental. There are signs of historic worm in some of the chairs which has all been treated as a precaution. The chairs have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Height : 32 1/2" (82cm) Seat Depth : 13 3/4" (35cm) Seat Width : 13 3/4" (35cm) Seat Height : 17" (43cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
