Description

DESCRIPTION A handsome Victorian figured mahogany fold-over card or tea table dating from the mid-19th century. The rectangular top opens on a swivel action to reveal a generous playing surface, with a fitted frieze drawer beneath retaining a decorative paper lining. The richly figured mahogany is particularly attractive throughout, displaying well-matched flame figuring across both leaves of the top. The table stands on an elegant turned baluster pedestal above a boldly carved quatreform base with scrolling cabriole legs terminating in carved scroll feet. The shaped frieze is richly carved with flowing acanthus scrolls centred by a finely carved cluster of grapes, giving the piece a particularly decorative appearance. Both practical and decorative, it would serve equally well as a card table, lamp table, centre table or occasional table. DIMENSIONS Height: 80.5 cm Width (closed): 99 cm Depth (closed): 47 cm CONDITION Presented in good antique condition consistent with age and use. There are the expected marks, knocks and surface scratches associated with age. The figured mahogany has developed a warm, attractive colour and patina. There is a section of veneer loss to t...
