Description

Antique 19th century Victorian settee in mahogany, a beautifully proportioned example of period furniture, very well made and of good quality. Its desirable compact size makes it an ideal choice for a wide range of interiors, offering both elegance and practicality without occupying excessive space. The settee features a classic button-back design, providing comfort while enhancing its timeless Victorian character. It stands on graceful cabriole legs with beautifully carved knees and retains its original porcelain castors, all of which reflect the quality craftsmanship and attention to detail of the period. The mahogany frame displays a rich, warm colour with attractive grain throughout, perfectly complementing the elegant grey upholstery. The combination of refined proportions, quality materials and original features makes this a particularly desirable and increasingly hard-to-find example. Presented in good condition, this charming Victorian settee is a rare find that effortlessly combines comfort, style and craftsmanship. It would make a beautiful addition to a hallway, living room, bedroom or reception area and is sure to become a standout feature in any home. Pro...
