Description

Rotterdam Canalscape Oil Painting By Willem Bos (Dutch, 1906-1977) Antique Brief Description: This is an exceptionally fine-quality original Impressionist Oil on Board Painting depicting a tranquil autumn day along a Rotterdam canal. The vibrant and atmospheric composition portrays several traditional working tugboats moored peacefully along the canal bank, while windmills and charming Dutch dwellings can be seen receding into the distance beneath a dramatic, light-filled sky. Executed with confident, expressive brushwork and a rich autumnal palette, the painting perfectly captures the distinctive character and serenity of the Dutch waterways. Circa 1950-1955. Painted by the listed Dutch artist Willem "Wim" Bos (1906-1977), the work is a wonderful example of his accomplished Impressionist style and his ability to portray the ever-changing effects of light across the landscape. Mounted with the fabulous, original gilt swept frame, and ready to be enjoyed immediately. Attributes: Oil on board painting Artist: Willem Bos Circa: 1950-1955 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in fabulous original condition. Framed Measurements: INCHES & CENTI...
