Description

Oil on canvas, signed lower left Image size: 20 1/4 x 16 1/5 inches (51.4 x 41.1 cm) Handmade contemporary-style frame Brown was born in 1894 in Salisbury. His father was William Lewis Brown (1864-1922), who became a "portrait painter and artist" around 1906, having previously run a builders' merchant business. Eric had an older sister, Dorothy, also an artist (especially watercolours) and a younger brother, Bernard, who became a successful architect in Salisbury. He also had a daughter, Zoë Napier Brown 1926-2011, who was a good painter though she worked in the field of social services. Eric Brown always painted in oil views of his local Salisbury; the works have a innocence about them that captures the English countryside perfectly.
