Description

Royal Worcester Exhibition Vase – Retailed by A.B. Daniell & Son, 1884 A finely modelled Royal Worcester porcelain vase, dated 1884, with sculptural dolphin-form handle and classical mask heads to each side. The body is applied with raised oval medallions depicting cherubic figures in relief, framed by ornate gilt scrollwork highlighted in iron-red. Further acanthus and anthemion motifs complete the design, and the vase stands on a fluted circular foot enriched with gilt. The underside carries the Royal Worcester green factory mark with date code for 1884, together with the red retailer's mark for A.B. Daniell & Son, Wigmore Street, London – noted for offering exhibition-standard Worcester wares during the late Victorian period. Condition: Good antique condition. Light rubbing to the gilding, commensurate with age. No chips, cracks or repairs. Dimensions: Height: 26.5 cm Width: 19 cm Depth: 11 cm
