Description

Early 20th century cut glass crystal six arm chandelier. The chandelier has twelve brass Prince of Wales leaves decorating the top above a moulded brass ring, from which cut glass crystal swags are suspended and gathered to a central moulded brass ring. The six scrolling brass arms are fitted with moulded brass drip pans and support B15 (small bayonet) bulb holders. Four tiers of cut glass crystal spikes hang from the central moulded brass ring, with further spikes decorating the drip pans. The chandelier is illuminated by six lamps behind the swags, comprising three B15 (small bayonet) and three B22 (large bayonet) bulb holders. Supplied with 13 cm of suspension chain. sku 3953
