Description

A stunning Victorian antique silver and agate brooch. Made in Scotland around 1860 probably in Edinburgh. This is an exceptionally rare brooch with an almost unique design consisting of 20 hand cut and polished agates, each one matching. It is in amazing condition with no damage or repairs. It is in the form of a family crest and may well have been a special commission. The collection of colours of agates in this brooch will compliment any garment and make it a very wearable piece of Victorian jewellery. Weight; 23 grams. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
