Description

A large 19th century carved alabaster bust in the manner of Jean-Baptiste Carpeaux 1827 - 1875. The bust depicts a young woman with her head turned slightly right, her long flowing hair in ringlets and flowers on her garments. The figure is finely carved but unfinished and unsigned, the combination of nature and beauty, and the way this sculpture is carved in particular the eyes is very much in the manner of Carpeaux. The bust lifts off of the base and is in good condition for its age with some minor damages and wear in areas, along with significant lovely untouched patina. Measurements Height 49cm Width 31cm Depth 20cm
