Description

An elegant French pier glass mirror, beautifully crafted with a richly ornamented gilded frame displaying exceptional neoclassical influence. The frame is adorned with finely carved torches, arrows, and impressive eagle head motifs, all showcasing the quality and craftsmanship of the period. The principal frame is finished in a soft pale blue painted ground, providing a striking contrast to the gilt decoration and enhancing its decorative appeal. The mirror retains its attractive tinted mirror plate, adding warmth and character while complementing the refined colour palette of the frame. Presented in good condition, this impressive French pier mirror is both a functional and highly decorative statement piece, perfectly suited to a grand hallway, drawing room, or above a console table. Its elegant proportions and richly carved detail make it a superb addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. Size: Height 60" (153cm) Width 37" (94cm) Depth 3" (7cm)
