Description

A Splendid Antique Edwardian Oak Cigar Box With Sterling Silver Mounts. The oak shows attractive open grain and warm colour, with a mellow surface that reads as well-aged and well-kept. A fully functioning key-operated lock is fitted to the front, and the box is supplied with a key as shown. Hallmarked or Sheffield, 1908. The underside carries a printed label stating that the oak is "over 600 years old" and taken from the foundation of Holy Trinity Church during restoration in 1907, with the name Barnby and Rust. * It is equally at home on a writing desk, dressing table, or bookshelf as a refined storage piece. Measurements: Height: 4" (approx. 10cm) Width: 9 1/2" (approx. 24cm) Depth: 6" (approx. 15cm) Total weight: 835g In good condition - The box shows light surface wear consistent with age and normal handling.
