Description

We are offering to you this Unusual Painting. Painter FB - Spanish School The Card Players Oil on canvas 20 inches x 24 inches Initialled and dated FB 62 Two men are playing cards under a pergola on a terrace in an arid mountainous country. The landscape and the costume of the two men identify the setting of this painting as the territory inland of Málaga. The artist is presently unidentified, but they have signed the painting with their initials FB and dated it '62. The style of the painting, and the meticulous treatment of the costume details the laced moccasins and animal pelt leggings recall the work of Bernardo Ferrándizy Bádenes(1835–85). Ferrandiz was born in Valencia and studied at the Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Carlos de Valencia, but he made Málaga his home. Much of his painting is an affectionate tribute to the people of Málaga with narrative subjects showcasing the local costume and there are clear similarities with our painting. A wineskinmaker by Ferrandiz, signed and dated 1866 (Christie's, 23rd September 2004, lot 110 sold £1,554)shows the subject wearing the same style of headgear as the man on the right in our painting, and a similar s...
