Description

A striking pair of Euclide table lamps by Angelo Brotto for Esperia Luci, crafted in sculptural solid brass and showcasing Brotto's signature geometric abstraction. Designed in the late 20th century, these lamps combine architectural form with warm metallic presence, making them standout examples of Italian modernist lighting. Their bold, abstract silhouettes and high-quality Esperia workmanship give them strong appeal for collectors of contemporary design and post-war Italian decorative arts. Raised on black marble plinth bases
