Description

A characterful Edwardian oak hall robe with six moulded panels and an arched top carved with floral and foliate detail. The original metal latch and crisp geometric edging add decorative interest. Inside is a hanging rail and a mirrored compartment with a small shelf — a practical early 20th century feature. The oak has developed a warm, rich patina, making this a solid and attractive example of Edwardian craftsmanship, ideal for hallway or bedroom use. Internal reference : SAI4252
