Description

This unrestored 19th CENTURY ARTIST'S CARVED LAY FIGURE has a lovely, old finish. It is very pleasing to hold and manoeuvre. The photographs show some interesting poses the Figure can hold. All moveable joints work. There are some old chips around the edges of the joint sockets. The little finger on the right hand is missing and the middle finger of the right hand is chipped. There is wear to the tips of the toes on the right foot. Please ask if you require any further information. Height: 19.5 inches (49.5 cm) Delivery within Mainland UK is included. Please email for current Shipping Rates.
