Description

Type of Artwork: Original 19th-Century French Lithograph with Complimentary Antique Photograph Artist: Victor Adam (1801–1866) Title: Accidents de l'Équitation ("Accidents of Horse Riding") Medium: Original lithograph on paper. Publisher: A. Bes & F. Dubreuil, Paris. Approximate Date: Circa 1830s–1840s. Description An original nineteenth-century French lithograph by the celebrated artist and lithographer Victor Adam (1801–1866). Entitled "Accidents de l'Équitation", the print depicts a delightful series of humorous equestrian mishaps, each individually captioned in French beneath an ornate decorative heading featuring a horse's head and riding equipment. Victor Adam was one of France's leading painters and printmakers, particularly admired for his military, sporting and equestrian subjects. Included with the lithograph is an original antique mounted studio photograph by R. E. Ruddock, Grand Studio, Pilgrim Street, Newcastle. The photograph depicts a large group portrait in traditional costume and is included as a complimentary piece of period photographic ephemera. Presentation The lithograph and photograph are supplied together as shown. The photograph remains ...
