Description

K0461 An attractive 19th-century French wall mirror, circa 1850, featuring a versatile design that can be styled in either portrait or landscape orientation. This French piece retains its original mirror plate, showcasing a magnificent, authentic foxing that adds deep historic character. The beautifully hand-carved and gilded frame is accented with exquisite, decorative floral motifs at each corner. Preserved in good condition, the mirror retains its original gilt finish and authentic wooden backboards. This antique mirror is fitted with wall fixings and ready to place at home.
