A fantastic bookstand in oak that dates to around 1905. It has a real Arts and Crafts look about it with a carved church window design and 2 brass upstands to hold reading matter. In great original condition in a medium brown waxed finish. It measures 11 inches high and wide and 7 inches deep. With an adjustable support at its back which folds flat when not in use. A really attractive item which could be used in a kitchen for recipe books or for sheet music that would make a nice present for a loved one.
