Description

A Pair of Exceptional Late 19th Century French Cobalt Blue Ceramic Jardinières. A striking and highly decorative pair of late 19th-century French cobalt blue glazed ceramic jardinières, lavishly mounted with finely cast gilt bronze ormolu in the opulent Louis XVI Revival taste. Rich in classical ornament, each vessel is adorned with beautifully modelled floral swags, ribbon-tied garlands, scrolling acanthus borders and elegant female mask handles, demonstrating the exceptional quality of French decorative arts during the Belle Époque. The deep cobalt blue glaze provides a dramatic contrast to the warm, time-softened ormolu mounts, creating a luxurious appearance that would have graced the grand salons and conservatories of the finest French interiors. The scalloped rims, gadrooned detailing and finely chased pedestal bases resting on four ornate feet further enhance their architectural elegance. Perfect as centrepieces, urns, or statement planters, these jardinières possess impressive scale while remaining versatile enough for display on consoles, pedestals or dining tables. Whether planted or appreciated purely as sculptural decorative objects, they bring timeless sop...
