Description

Fine Austrian Gilt Bronze Sculpture: Hans Müller (1873-1937) Madonna with Child. Brief Description: This is an exceptionally fine-quality original gilt bronze sculpture depicting the Madonna and Christ Child, masterfully created by the celebrated Austrian sculptor Hans Müller (1873-1937). Beautifully modelled with remarkable sensitivity, the sculpture captures the tender bond between mother and child, with graceful flowing drapery and serene expressions lending the work a timeless devotional elegance. The bronze has acquired a wonderfully rich, original gilt patina, enhancing every finely cast detail. The sculpture is signed by the artist and remains mounted on its original period variegated marble plinth, providing a striking contrast to the warm gilt bronze and creating an impressive display piece. A superb example of Hans Müller's work, this elegant sculpture possesses both artistic refinement and enduring decorative appeal. Weight: 3.1 kg. About Hans Müller (1873-1937) Hans Müller was an acclaimed Austrian sculptor, born in Vienna on 10 January 1873. He studied at the prestigious Academy of Fine Arts, Vienna, where he trained under the distinguished sculptor Edm...
