Description

DESCRIPTION A handsome George I walnut chest on stand, dating from circa 1720, retaining excellent colour, attractive figured walnut veneers and a remarkably original overall appearance. The upper section is fitted with a moulded top above two short and three long graduated drawers, veneered in figured walnut, bordered by herringbone crossbanding. The lower stand incorporates three further drawers and stands on elegant barley twist legs united by shaped stretchers. The carcase and drawers are constructed in oak and the chest separates into two sections for ease of transport. A substantial and well-preserved early Georgian walnut chest on stand, offering excellent proportions, generous storage and genuine period character. DIMENSIONS Height: 163 cm Width: 100 cm Depth: 53 cm CONDITION Presented in very good antique condition commensurate with age. The walnut veneers retain an excellent rich colour and attractive figuring throughout with a pleasing, honest patina. The crossgrain mouldings are generally well preserved. The rear legs are old replacements and the brass handles are later replacements in keeping with the period. There are the expected marks, knocks, scratches...
