Description

This is a small Georgian, taper spirit decanter dating from the second half of the 18th century, c1790. The decanter is in excellent condition for its age. This means, of course, that it shows age related wear and tear consistent with some 200+ years of use. There is a polished out pontil mark on the base of the decanter. The decanter is taper shaped. The neck is scale-cut and there is a basal band of finger flute cutting. The decanter is otherwise plain. The base is plain save for a polished out pontil mark and measures 7.8 cm (3.1 inches) in diameter. The decanter is 19.8 cm (7.8 inches) in height without the stopper and 25 cm (10 inches) in height with the stopper inserted. The stopper is of clipped disk form, and is possibly the original. It is of the same age, style and metal as the decanter and is an excellent fit. There are no chips, cracks, significant scratches or any obvious evidence of restoration. English lead glass decanter weighing in at 500 g. (~ 1 lb. 2 oz).
