Date of manufacture: 19th Century

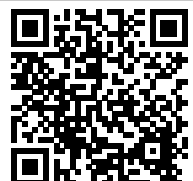

Description

Aesthetic Movement Chesterfield Country House Sofa. Circa 1870, English. Oversized legs which are ebonised. The front legs are tapered and fluted, while the back are splayed and chamfered. There is a carved apron frieze having rosettes and also is ebonised. Solid hardwood construction throughout and sturdy. The upholstery you see is without a top cover and is all traditional with tied springs and horsehair fillings with visible hand stitching to the calico lining. Dimensions: Length 212cm x depth 86cm x height 72cm. Seat width 155cm, seat depth 55cm, seat height 42cm. Some losses to the small rosettes. This requires some extra work to the seat, as a couple of ties have broken holding the springs in place. A traditional repair is needed and we can refer you in the right direction.
