Description

A late 19th century mahogany occasional table, the figured octagonal top with a thumb-moulded edge, raised on slender tapered legs united by a cross-stretcher centred by turned finial and raised on integral button feet. Pairing a geometric silhouette with slender turned spindlework, characteristic of Anglo-Japanese inspired late Victorian Aesthetic Movement design. Very good antique condition, with some light surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, stable and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1890.
