Description

A handsome Victorian mahogany four-door sideboard, circa 1860, boasting a wonderful original colour and attractive patina developed over many years. The front is beautifully detailed with four arched panel doors, decorative carved corbels and a substantial moulded top, making it an impressive statement piece. The interior offers excellent storage, with 3 cushion drawers along the top, above 2 slides to the left cupboard, a central shelved compartment, and a cupboard to the right with a cellarette drawer below. The sideboard comes in two sections, with the top lifting off the base for easier transportation and installation. Presented in good antique condition, with some age-related marks and wear consistent with its age and use, adding to its character. A quality Victorian sideboard with excellent proportions, original colour and plenty of practical storage. W 199.5cm (78.75") D 61cm (24") H 95.5cm (37.5")
