Description

19th Century English White & Gilt Two-Handled Porcelain Urn A well-made English porcelain urn from circa 1840, featuring a white ground with gilt decoration on the rim, handles, and base. The urn's design, with two simple yet elegant handles, is typical of the early Victorian period, reflecting the subtle Neoclassical style. The gilding shows light wear, in keeping with age, but the piece retains its refined appearance. Unmarked to the underside, this urn may have been produced by a smaller workshop. Its classical form and simple elegance make it a versatile decorative piece for a variety of settings. Measures: 16 x 14 x 17 (height) cm. Condition: Very good condition. No chips, cracks, or repairs. Minor wear to the gilding and light surface scratches consistent with age.
