Description

A 17th century carved oak cupboard originating from France, the cupoboard come in two parts for easy mobility. The cupboard is beautifully carved throughout , with corinthian column supports that give it a rather architectural form. There are two cupboards and two drawers with a pot board below, there are signs of some old restorations, commensurate with age. Unfortunately there is no key for the lock, the right hand door opens and there is an interior shoot bolt for the left door. Over this piece is in excellent condition and has superb colour and patination. Height is 157.5cm (62.0inches) Width is 119cm (46.9inches) Depth is 50cm (19.7inches)
