Description

A fine Georgian Revival walnut bachelor's chest of drawers, combining elegant proportions with exceptional craftsmanship. Raised upon traditional bracket feet, the chest features an arrangement of four graduated, oak-lined drawers, each beautifully decorated with walnut crossbanding and intricate herringbone inlays. The drawers retain their attractive etched brass plate handles and matching escutcheons, enhancing the piece's period character. The hinged top is equally well detailed with matching crossbanding and herringbone inlays and opens to create a practical writing or dressing surface, supported by a pair of pull-out lopers—an ingenious feature synonymous with the classic bachelor's chest design. Presented in good condition, this handsome and highly functional chest offers timeless Georgian-inspired elegance, making it an excellent addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors.
