Description

An elegant Sheraton Revival mahogany inlaid corner cabinet, showcasing the refined craftsmanship and decorative detail associated with this timeless design. Raised upon graceful splay feet with a shaped apron, the cabinet is beautifully proportioned and makes excellent use of a corner space. The lower cupboard features a finely figured panel door decorated with striking geometric motifs, enriched with satinwood crossbanding and delicate ebony and boxwood line inlays. Above, the astragal-glazed display door opens to reveal two fitted shelves, ideal for displaying fine porcelain, glassware, or decorative objects. The upper section is further enhanced with matching satinwood crossbanding and intricate ebony and boxwood stringing, creating a harmonious and sophisticated appearance throughout. Presented in good condition, this handsome Sheraton Revival corner cabinet is both decorative and practical, offering elegant period styling and quality craftsmanship. A superb addition to any traditional or classic interior, it is sure to become a distinguished focal point within the home. Size: Height 75" (190cm) Width 32" (81cm) Depth 22" (56cm)
