Description

A beautiful 18th century solid elm Chinese side table c. 1770. In excellent condition throughout and with a very well developed patina and beautiful warm colour with figured grain. . Elm is such a lovely timber, it has unique water and insect resistant properties and over centuries of use the grain and colour ripens to a dark honey colour. . No worm or significant marks, no repairs or other issues. . This side table is in very solid and usable original condition and the patina really glows. . Will work well within a modern or antique interior and is a practical piece of robust antique furniture suitable for daily use as a side table or as a stool. . Very attractive and strongly recommended. . Dimensions are: . 19 inches high, 16.25 inches wide and 13 inches deep
