Description

A stunning Victorian antique silver teapot pin cushion. Made in Birmingham in 1876 by John Edward Wilmot. It is a rare item that is original with the cushion replacing the top. Aside from light wear commensurate with its age this item is in great condition. There are a full set of hallmarks underneath the item. This is a very collectable pin cushion and would be a worthy addition to your collection. Weight; 50 grams approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
