Description

A rare and highly desirable pair of Regency teak military campaign chests, presented in superb condition. Each chest is beautifully constructed in richly figured teak and fitted with two deep drawers with inset brass campaign handles and escutcheons. The tops are inset with brass corners and name plaques, one finely engraved 'Mrs Anne Parker No.1' and the other 'Mrs Anne Parker No.2', indicating they were commissioned as a matching travelling pair. Complete with substantial brass carrying handles to the sides and standing on turned bun feet, these exceptional campaign chests display an outstanding colour and patina, combining historical provenance with timeless elegance.
