Description

A beautiful European Art Deco ruby and diamond ring set in platinum. The head of the ring is set with a central target design of 5 sparkling European old cut diamonds and is interspersed with 8 calibre cut channel set vibrant rubies running through it. The stones are set within a milgrain border and openwork gallery, very typical of the Art Deco period. The central target is flanked by an outer edge on either side of 4 further rubies to each side giving a fan effect. The shoulders of the ring are set with 6 European old cut diamonds to each side which flow round nicely to meet a polished platinum band. The estimated total diamond weight is 1ct and the estimated total ruby weight is 0.5cts. The ring is set in platinum which is unmarked but is fully tested. The ring is currently a UK size N1/2 (USA size 7), but this can be sized upon request for a perfect fit. The ring measures approximately 2.1 cm's by 1.1cm's and the gross weight is 6.6 grams.
