Description

Beautiful Queen Anne Revival walnut veneered two-piece tallboy dating from the early to mid-20th century. An exceptionally elegant and well-proportioned piece, featuring beautifully figured walnut veneers throughout. The chest is enhanced by its gently serpentine drawer fronts, attractive crossbanded veneers and elegant moulded top with finely stepped edging, all combining to create a refined and timeless appearance. The tallboy is fitted with seven generously sized drawers, all retaining their original decorative brass swan-neck handles. The drawers slide effortlessly and provide an excellent amount of practical storage while maintaining the charm and character of this beautifully crafted piece. Raised on elegant Queen Anne style cabriole legs, the chest has graceful proportions that make it equally suitable for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Its slim footprint makes it an excellent choice where space is limited, offering generous storage without occupying a large floor area. It would look equally attractive in a bedroom, hallway or landing, finished with a table lamp, vase of flowers or other decorative accessories. A superb quality walnut veneered tal...
