Description

A charming late Victorian stripped pine dresser, offering both practical storage and timeless country-house character. Crafted from solid pine, the piece features a two-door cupboard upper section enclosing a spacious shelved interior, above a generous arrangement of drawers providing excellent storage throughout. The simple proportions, warm pine tones and honest craftsmanship make this an extremely versatile piece, equally suited to a kitchen, dining room, hallway, bedroom or country cottage interior. The natural stripped pine finish highlights the timber's attractive grain, knots and character developed over many decades of use. With its combination of cupboard storage, shelving and drawers, this dresser is both highly functional and visually appealing. A wonderful example of Victorian pine furniture, full of charm, warmth and authenticity. Condition: Presented in good antique condition consistent with age and use. As expected from a genuine Victorian pine piece, the colour is not completely uniform throughout and there are historic marks, old repairs, surface wear, minor scratches, knocks and signs of previous use. These age-related imperfections only add to the au...
