Description

This is an elegant and rare antique George IV Regency twin-pedestal extending dining table that can comfortably seat twelve people in comfort and dates from Circa 1830. The table has three original leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion and it stands on a pair of quadruped faceted bases terminating in carved paw feet and castors. The table top is of beautiful flame mahogany and there is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome dining table, which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection and a talking point with guests at meal times. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price, but are available if required. Condition: In really excellent condition, having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops; please see photos for confirmation.
