Description

An impressive pair of Art Deco walnut and leather club chairs, beautifully combining the bold geometric styling of the Art Deco period with exceptional comfort and craftsmanship. These handsome club chairs are of classic Art Deco form, featuring striking shaped burr walnut side panels that showcase the rich figuring and warmth of the timber, finished with elegant brass studwork. The leather upholstery perfectly complements the refined walnut frames, further enhancing the sophisticated and well-balanced design. Raised upon ebonised block feet, the chairs possess a strong yet sophisticated presence. The generously proportioned frames are upholstered in high-quality leather and are complemented by deep, loose seat cushions, providing outstanding comfort while retaining their timeless Art Deco appeal. Presented in good condition, this exceptional pair of Art Deco club chairs would make a superb addition to a period interior, library, study, or contemporary living space, offering both style and comfort in equal measure. Size: Height 32" (81cm) Width 34" (86cm) Depth 34" (86cm) Seat height 18" (46cm) Seat depth 22" (56cm)
