Description

Antique Landscape Oil Painting Countryside Hop-Kiln Harvest Signed Original Brief Description: This is a fine original mid-20th-century Impressionist Oil on Board Landscape Painting depicting a picturesque rural farmstead during the autumn season. The tranquil composition captures a charming period hop kiln with its adjoining country house, nestled within the heart of a traditional English farming landscape. Dominating the foreground is a freshly harvested field, beautifully furrowed and leading the eye towards a pair of majestic leafless oak trees, while horses graze peacefully beyond, adding life and authenticity to this idyllic countryside scene. Executed in a delicate Impressionist style, the artist has employed a harmonious palette of warm earth tones and soft blues, creating a composition rich in atmosphere, depth, and seasonal character. The work is signed in the lower right corner 'Wyatt' and is presented within its original, spectacular quality pierced and scrolled gesso-moulded frame, which complements the painting beautifully and enhances its impressive decorative appeal. An elegant and highly decorative landscape that perfectly encapsulates the timeless...
