Description

Stunning Portrait Oil Painting Newlyn School Charles Spencelayh RA (1865-1958) Brief Description: We are delighted to offer for sale this exceptional original late 19th-century Oil on Canvas Portrait Painting by Charles Spencelayh RA (1865-1958), widely regarded as one of Britain's finest portrait and genre painters of the late Victorian and early 20th-century periods. Painted in 1895, when the artist was just 30 years of age, this remarkable portrait is a superb example of Spencelayh's extraordinary technical ability and meticulous eye for detail. The work is both signed "Charles Spencelayh" and dated "1895" in the lower left corner. The captivating composition portrays an affluent young curly-haired girl with striking blue eyes seated upon an elegant Regency armchair, engrossed in an illustrated book. A luxurious silk cushion has been thoughtfully placed behind her, supporting her small frame within the oversized chair and adding warmth and charm to the composition. Executed with almost photographic precision, the painting reveals the exceptional observational skills for which Spencelayh became renowned. Every feature has been rendered with astonishing realism, fro...
